Before Kennedy Agyapong came out with his revelations of his face and the alleged vices of Anas, I suggested that Anas has to be investigated and audited too. I "accused" him of tax invasion, entrapment and jaundiced mission for his job. I still insist that he must be investigated. Here is my suggestion: The govt has a lot of smart investigators in the Police Service. They should start "confiscating" all the mentioned properties and wait for the legal tussles that follows, then the legitimate owners would come with documents to prove it. What is Kwaku Baako's problem of defence? He too needs to be investigated for his sudden EXCITEMENT.
